THE TEMPLE DOORS AND FOYER

THE VESTIBULES

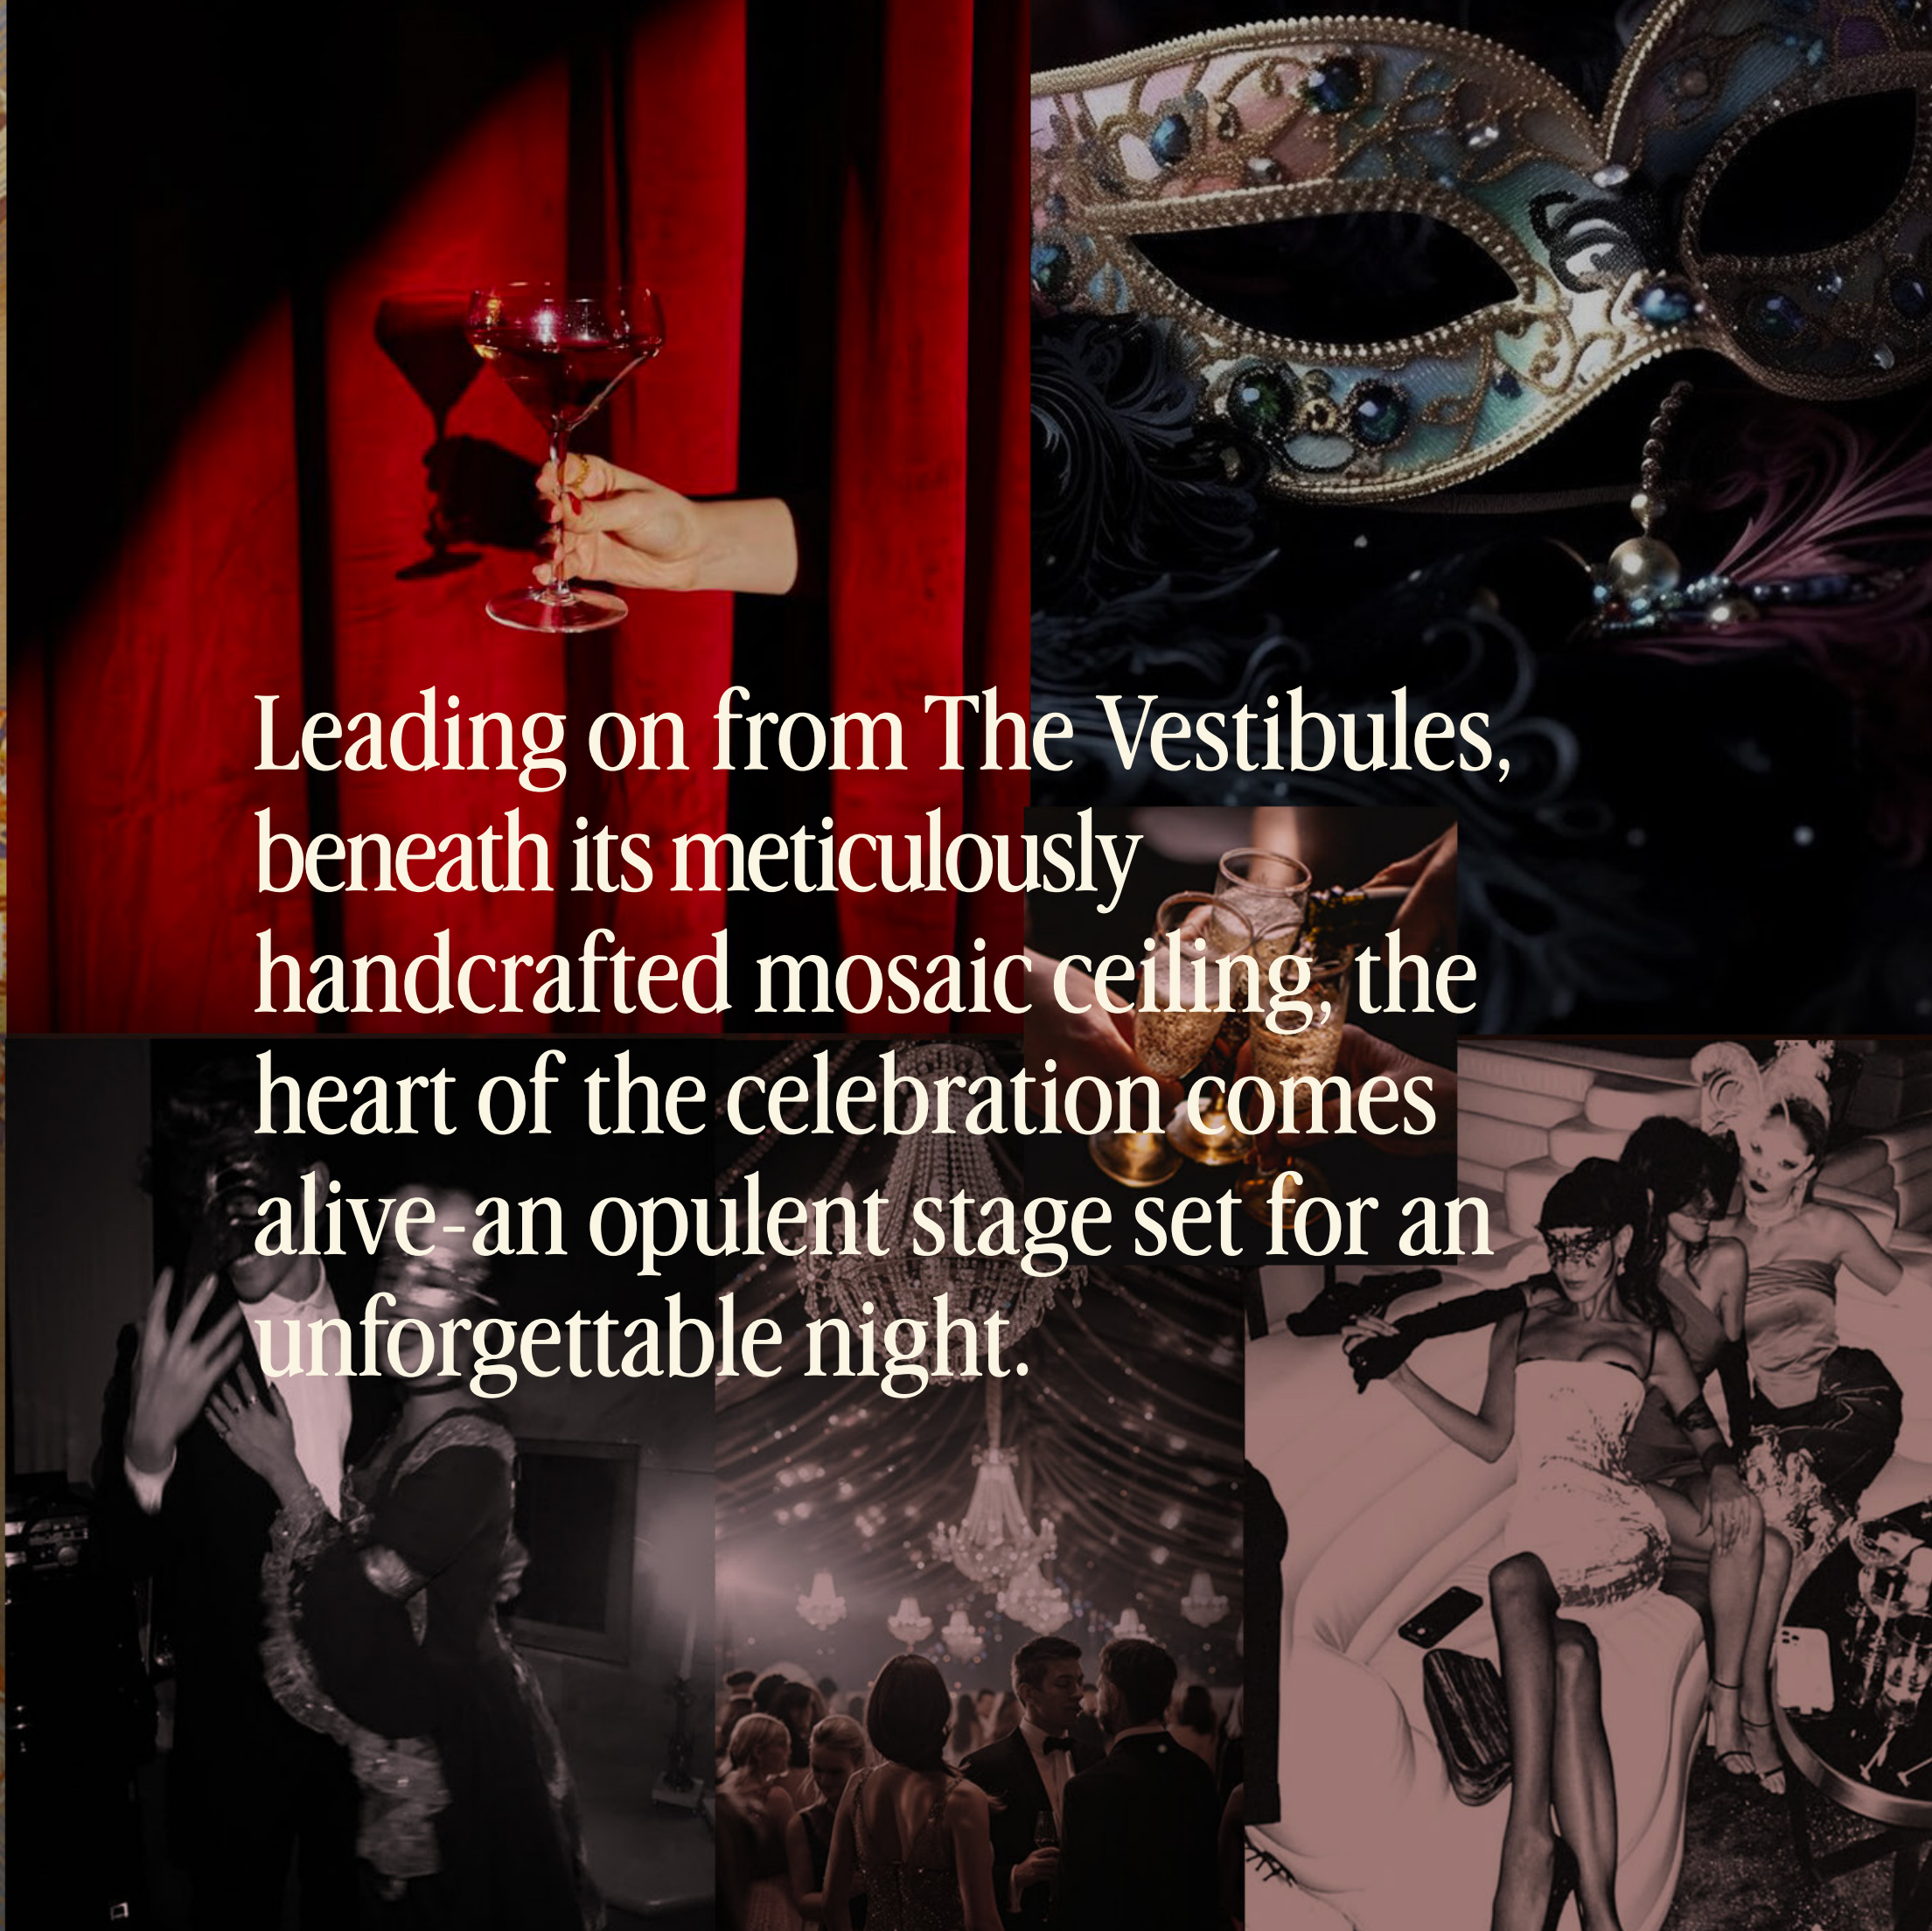

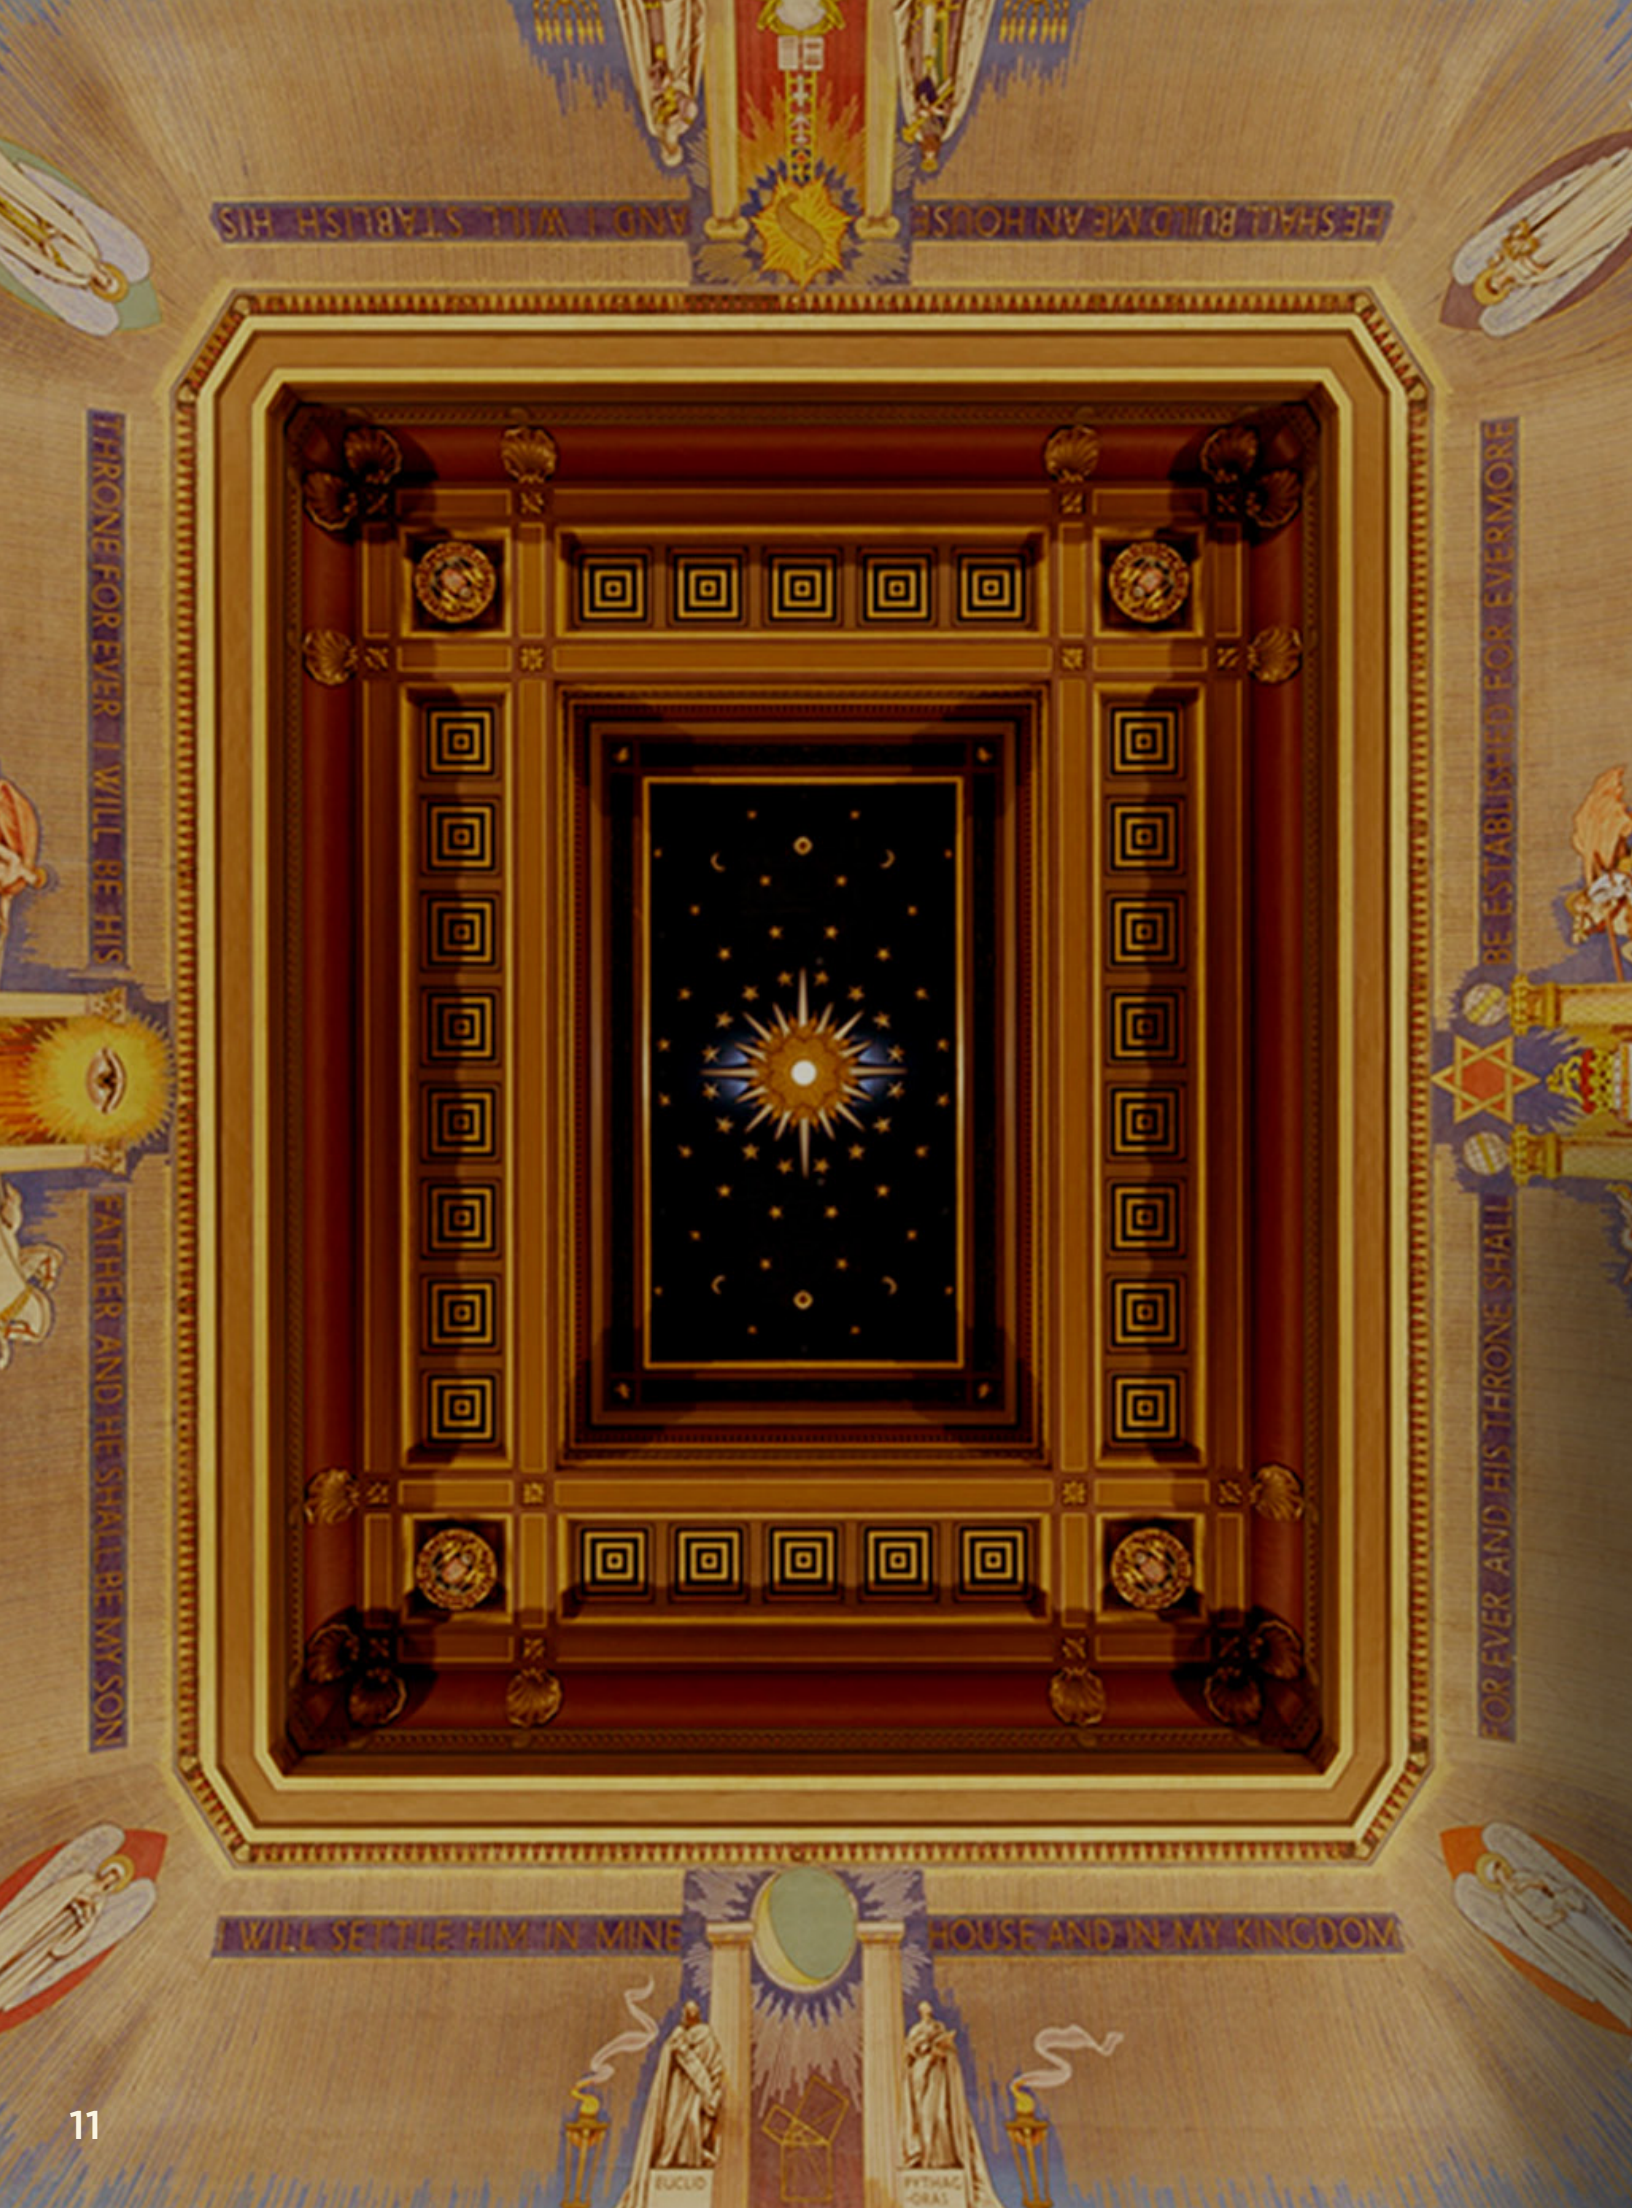

The image depicts a luxurious, multi-level interior space. At the top, a balcony with ornate metal railings and decorative finials overlooks the main area. The central space features a curved, glass-enclosed bar with a polished wooden top, where a staff member in a red jacket is visible. The bar is surrounded by a large, ornate chandelier and a display of glassware. To the left and right of the central bar are two identical lounge areas, each featuring a plush, dark red velvet sofa and a matching ottoman. The walls are adorned with large, ornate mirrors and decorative panels. The floor is made of polished stone tiles. The overall atmosphere is one of sophisticated elegance and grandeur.

Exuding sophistication and charm, the Vestibules effortlessly transform into three distinct spaces with the sweep of ornate dividing doors.

THE GRAND TEMPLE

The image shows a large, ornate interior space, possibly a theater or ballroom, with a checkered floor and red lighting. The title "THE GRAND TEMPLE" is overlaid in large yellow letters. The background features a stage with a red curtain and a checkered floor. The walls are decorated with intricate patterns and lights. The overall atmosphere is dramatic and theatrical.

Leading on from The Vestibules, beneath its meticulously handcrafted mosaic ceiling, the heart of the celebration comes alive-an opulent stage set for an unforgettable night.

Rich red tones fill the space, immersing guests in a world of decadence and grandeur, while dynamic lighting effects ignite the high DJ riser at the centre of this sensational setting.
